AMK 5- In the Amekhal case the amikhal 28.2.1918 mildly objected to being only a 2nd member when the sub-dep with him local status happened to be the President. Properly speaking such idea of perhaps is not consistent with local self gov work

Though nominations are intended to be made after the results of election are known, it is only in cases in which a new Municipal Council is created for the first time that nominations should be submitted before elections so that the constitution of the Municipal Council from a particular date may be announced in time and the nominated Councillors may carry on the work pending elected Councillors taking their seats in due course.
